

Biodata: Abdul Wahid Tocalo, Angelika Albores, Remi Valerie Zalzos, Ma. Cyril Fernandez, Ariel Robert Ponce

Abdul Wahid Tocalo earned his Bachelor of Secondary Education major in English at Notre Dame University (NDU) and his Master of Arts in English Language Education at De La Salle University-Manila, both through Commission on Higher Education scholarships. He previously served as a university lecturer at NDU, teaching English language, professional education, and research courses. He is currently pursuing Juris Doctor at NDU and works as a Legislative Staff Officer at the Policy Research and Legal Services of the Bangsamoro Transition Authority. His research interests include Corpus Linguistics, World Englishes, English Language Teaching, and (Critical) Discourse Analysis.

Angelika Albores earned her Bachelor of Secondary Education major in English at Notre Dame University. She is currently teaching at the Asian International School of Aeronautics and Technology-Basic Education.

Remi Valerie Zalzos earned her Bachelor of Secondary Education major in English at Notre Dame University. She is presently teaching at Alabel National High School in Sarangani Province.

Ma. Cyril Fernandez earned her Bachelor of Secondary Education major in English at Notre Dame University. She is currently affiliated with Quipper Philippines, Inc.

Ariel Robert Ponce is an associate professor at the Polytechnic University of the Philippines and assistant professorial lecturer at De La Salle University, Manila, where he earned his Ph.D. in Applied Linguistics. His work has been published in top multilingualism research journals: Journal of Multilingual and Multicultural Development and International Journal of Multilingualism, and leading academic press, Ateneo de Manila University Press. His research interests include language-in-education policy, multilingualism, Philippine English, and migration linguistics.