

Biodata: Md Zahangir Alam, Farhana Binte Mizan

Md. Zahangir Alam is a Communication Instructor at Red River College Polytech and an ESL Instructor at the YMCA-YWCA of Winnipeg. He holds an M.Ed. in Second Language Education from the University of Manitoba. With a strong academic and professional foundation in English language teaching, Mr. Alam's research interests span a range of topics within TESOL, applied linguistics, and teacher education, he has authored seven research articles published in peer-reviewed, indexed journals, contributing to current discussions in language education and instructional practice. His ongoing work aims to bridge theory and classroom practice, particularly in the context of second language acquisition and inclusive teaching methodologies.

Farhana Binte Mizan is a former Lecturer in the Department of English at the Asian University of Bangladesh. Her academic interests lie in the fields of TESOL, applied linguistics, and the integration of technology in language education. She is particularly interested in exploring how digital tools can enhance language learning outcomes and teacher effectiveness in diverse educational settings. Her work reflects a commitment to innovative and learner-centered approaches to language teaching and research.