

Biodata: Miftahul Huda & Irham Irham

Miftahul Huda is a member of Grammar and Pragmatics (GaP) research group and a doctoral researcher at School of Linguistics and Literature, University of Antwerp Belgium. He is a tenured lecturer of UIN Maulana Malik Ibrahim Malang, Indonesia. His research interest includes critical pedagogy, teaching of EIL, linguistic ethnography in educational context, and cultural studies.

Irham Irham is a PhD student at Sultan Hassanah Bolkiah Institute of Education and a member of International and Comparative Education research group, Universiti Brunei Darussalam, Brunei. He is interested in medium of instruction, corpus linguistics, discourse analysis, and internationalization of higher education. His articles have appeared in Asian Englishes, Changing English, Higher Education, Indonesian Journal of Applied Linguistics, and Research in Comparative and International Education, among others.