

Biodata: Emil Ubaldo

Emil F. Ubaldo is an Assistant Professor at the Department of Secondary Education, Central Luzon State University in the Philippines. He finished his Ph.D. English with concentration in Applied Linguistics at the University of Memphis, Tennessee, USA under a joint scholarship grant from the Fulbright Program and the Philippine Commission on Higher Education (CHED). His main research interests focus on peer L2 collaborative writing, task-based language teaching, CALL, and language policy in education.