

Biodata: Vanessa Reis Esteves

Vanessa has been a passionate EFL teacher for the past 31 years and counting. She has taught English language learners from the ages of 3 to 60+. She currently teaches at Escola Superior de Educação belonging to the Polytechnic University in Porto, Portugal, where she teaches English language, literature and various subjects related to the methodology and didactics of teaching English. Vanessa divides her time between writing coursebooks, giving teacher training sessions around the world, teaching English and is about to complete her Doctorate degree in the field of coursebook design, which is one of her many interests.