

Biodata: W. I. Griffith & Hye-Yeon Lim

W. I. Griffith Ph.D. has 30 years of experience working in foreign language education. She has worked with teachers from many countries and often conducts workshops in Mexico. Her current research focuses on the importance of culture in learning and perception.

Hye-Yeon Lim (Ph.D. in Foreign Language Education from the University of Texas at Austin) is Professor at the Defense Language Institute Foreign Language Center where she researches and publishes about learning and teaching foreign languages. Her areas of interests are foreign language education, faculty development, and instructional technology.