

Biodata: Lutfi Ashar Mauludin, Triubaida Maya Ardianti, Gatot Prasetyo, Linda Riski Sefrina, Andari Puji Astuti

Lutfi Ashar Mauludin is a lecturer in English Diploma Program of Universitas Airlangga. He teaches English for General Purposes and English for Specific Purposes for Vocational Education Students. His research interests revolve around learning motivation, assessments, genre instructions, and teaching method for writing.

Triubaida Maya Ardianti serves as a lecturer in English Diploma Program, Faculty of Vocational Studies, Universitas Airlangga. She has a keen interest in studying foreign language learning from sociocultural perspectives and assessments.

Gatot Prasetyo is an Indonesian language instructor in Defense Critical Language & Culture Program at University of Montana. He is a PhD candidate in Foreign, Second, and Multilingual Language Education at The Ohio State University, studying intercultural communicative competence among adult English speakers in Indonesian courses. His research interests include language socialization, academic discourse socialization, language ideology, and written corrective feedback in second language writing.

Linda Riski Sefrina is a lecturer in Nutrition Study Program of Singaperbangsa Karawang University. She teaches Community Nutrition field like Nutrition Epidemiology and Statistics. Her research interests revolve around biostatistics, nutrition assessments, nutrition problems and public health problems.

Andari Puji Astuti is a lecturer in Chemistry Education Program of Universitas Muhammadiyah Semarang. She teaches Teaching and Learning Science and Teaching Practice for Chemistry Education Students. Her research interests revolve around learning motivation, Literacy, pedagogy, and Social Emotional Learning.