

Biodata: J. Priyanto Widodo, Lailatul Musyarofah, & Joko Slamet

J. Priyanto Widodo is a senior lecturer at Universitas PGRI Delta, Sidoarjo, East Java, Indonesia, holding the academic rank of Lector. His areas of expertise include Educational Technology, History, and Language. Actively involved in teaching, research, and community service, he has published extensively in both national and international journals across the fields of humanities, history, and language. His research interests center on the exploration of innovative approaches in education and language studies.

Lailatul Musyarofah is a lecturer in Universitas PGRI Delta Sidoarjo and an executive board of PGRI East Java Province. She is dedicated individual known for her contributions to education and women empowerment. In education field, she has an epic motto "Teaching with Heart" that made a positive impact through her work. While in the union, she efforts to empower women through campaign, book writing, and talk show for creating meaningful change. Her recent focuses now are in ratifying C190 and realizing SDG5 for achieving gender equality. More information, she can be reached out via FB/IG/TikTok at Lilam Mozarafa.

Joko Slamet earned his doctorate in English Language Teaching (ELT) from Universitas Negeri Malang, Indonesia, and is actively engaged in research and academic publishing. His scholarly interests span English Language Teaching, Linguistics, English for Specific Purposes (ESP), Technology-Enhanced Language Learning, and Research & Development (R&D). He currently serves as Editor-in-Chief of the ELLINE Journal and contributes as an international peer reviewer for several high-impact journals. Through his academic endeavors, he is committed to advancing pedagogical innovation and interdisciplinary research in language education.