

Biodata: Chow Chin Hui & Soo Ruey Shing

Chow Chin Hui is a PhD student currently pursuing PhD in Education (TESL) in University Sarawak Malaysia. He is currently working on a research project titled 'The Effects of Coded Corrective Feedback on Primary School Students' Grammatical Awareness and Self-Correction Skills in English Writing. He has obtained his Master's degree in Education (TESL) in Uinar International University. He has been teaching the English language to students of different levels which include primary, secondary and adult students for over ten years. His interest includes teaching English as a second language, written corrective feedback and educational psychology.

Soo Ruey Shing (Ph.D) is a senior lecturer at the Faculty of Education, Language and Communication, Universiti Malaysia Sarawak. He obtained his doctorate in TESL education from Sultan Idris Education Universiti. His research interests include instructional communication, Applied Linguistics, teacher education, ESP/EAP and educational psychology. He has more than 18 years of experience in the field of language education as a lecturer, trainer, practitioner, and researcher. His research outputs have appeared in several journals. Currently, he involves in a few SoTL projects, focusing on teaching and learning in higher education. In addition, he is also an evaluation panel member for Malaysian Qualification Agency.