

Biodata: Dedi Irwansyah & Umi Yawisah

Dedi Irwansyah holds a PhD in Language Education Science and is a lecturer in the Department of English Education at State Islamic University (UIN) Jurai Siwo Lampung, Indonesia. He teaches courses in academic writing, and EFL pedagogy. His research focuses on TEFL in Islam-affiliated institutions, and teaching with literature. He has published and presented on ELT in Indonesian Islamic school and higher education with particular attention to context-responsive pedagogy and the positioning of ELT in Islamic educational settings. He also completed the Master Trainers Course for the English Language Teacher Training Program sponsored by the U.S. Embassy Jakarta.

Umi Yawisah earned her doctoral degree from Gadjah Mada University majoring in Linguistics, in 2018. She is an associate professor at State Islamic University (UIN) Jurai Siwo Lampung, Indonesia. She currently teaches in the Faculty of Tarbiyah and Teacher Training. She teaches courses in reading, English teaching, and sociolinguistics. She has published and presented on language use, politeness strategies, learning management system, and English language teaching in Islamic higher education and special education context. She is affiliated with the Masyarakat Linguistik Indonesia (MLI) and the Linguistics and Literature (LITA) associations.